A Four-bedroom villa in El Campanario that understands the assignment from the outset: clean architecture, private outdoor living, and interiors designed around natural light rather than unnecessary statement pieces. Set across 403 m² on a 648 m² plot, the home combines sharp contemporary lines with warm textures, landscaped greenery, and a layout that moves effortlessly between indoor and outdoor spaces. The private pool, rooftop solarium, generous terraces, and two-car garage complete a property designed for practical luxury rather than display.

The main living space is where the house shifts away from the expected. Full-height sliding glass doors open completely onto the terraces, creating one uninterrupted living environment framed by
