In most locations, you have to choose between being close to everything and living in peace. Here, you don't.

At Palmeras 25, daily life is quite literally just a few steps away.

Leave through one entrance and you are surrounded by restaurants, terraces, shops and the energy of Benalmádena. Leave through the other and the atmosphere changes completely: quieter, more private and far more discreet.

Both entrances connect directly to the parking area.

A major supermarket is only a short walk away. A padel club sits just across the road. The
